Seen, Heard and Done Among Those Who Go, Come and Tarry—Women and Society, Here and Elsewhere

THE U. S. NAVY.

From sea to sea they wander o'er
With vision clear and keen,
A braver set of hardy lads
The world has never seen.
With jest and song they roll along,
True types of manhood grand,
May God preserve for evermore,
The Guardians of our Land.

When storms arise and cross their path,
They place their trust on high,
And bravely meet with nerves of steel
The tempest from the sky;
Or if the foe takes earthly shape,
With stoic hearts they stand,
Repelling all who dare assail
The doctrines of our Land.

O Ruler of the earth look down
And bless our sailors brave,
And guide them in the rightful way,
No greater boon we crave.
When war's alarms call them to arms
Undaunted they stand
Till crowned they are by Victory—
The Guardians of our Land.

—J. O. S. in Army and Navy Register.

DAINTINESS DESTROYED.

A dainty stranger waited in the dining room of a hotel in Smith Center, Kan., the other day, and as the chair was held back for him pulled out his handkerchief and dusted the seat carefully. Pulling up his trousers, he seated himself, wiped the knife, fork and spoon with a napkin, worried a few crumbs off the table and heaved a sigh of relief. Without hesitation the girl who stepped forward to take his order deftly wiped the stranger's mouth, which had been drawn into a pucker of dissatisfaction at the imaginary untidiness abounding, and planted a kiss thereon that was plainly heard in all parts of the room. The dainty stranger when he recovered ordered meekly, ate hurriedly and left quickly.—Several Exchanges.

TRUE GALLANTRY.

Beautiful Widow—Do you know, I'm forty years old to-day?

Whenever you find that you believe bad news and unworthy things on their mere rumor, and have to have an affidavit attached to good news or pleasant and promotive things, it is time to call a halt. You are becoming morbid, and in a few months of the pernicious tendency you will be unfit to associate with the strictly sane and morally healthy.—Tampa Times.

Mayor Solomonson is on the Atlantic sailing for Europe, Acting Mayor Elmer Webb left last night for Pensacola and it is at last "Mayor Dan Wiggins."—Tampa Times.

Griffonette Utility Coat

The need of an all-over cover garment of some description is one of the most imperative, no matter how limited or how varied the wardrobe may be. When the garment is likewise waterproof a distinct advantage is gained. The new griffonette cloth possesses this desirable quality without in any way suggesting a mackintosh. In fact, it looks exactly as though the coat were fashioned for the dressiest of wear. The one pictured shows a delightfully fashionable air. The top part fits smoothly over the shoulders, with mannish collar and lapel and broad strappings that are folded in with the fullness at the waistline in front, and in the back extend down into little postillion tabs. The skirt portion is pleated to the top, the fronts interlined with a princess haircloth and folded back in reverse form, while the sleeve is a full bishop pattern with the fullness pleated and stitched to meet the cuff.

NATIONAL TENNIS MEET AT NEWPORT

By Associated Press.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 22.—Although with increased court facilities the capacity of the Casino was taxed to the limit to-day to accommodate the largest number of players that ever participated in a tennis tournament in the world. The record made a few years ago of not quite a hundred entries in a tournament in Great Britain was exceeded this year by the twenty-sixth national championship which began this morning, in which 105 players from all parts of the country sent in their names for the single event.

In addition to the fifty-odd matches in singles, there was scheduled for the day the contest between the champions of the east and west in doubles, F. B. Alexander and H. H. Hackett and Kreigh Colins and H. H. Weidner, respectively, the winners to meet the present national champions, Holcomb Ward and E. C. Wright, on the same court to-morrow.

The draw for the single event brought together no two of the very notable players, so that the contest in the doubles had no counter attraction. The spacious grounds of the Casino were thronged at an early hour with the players and their friends, and by 10 o'clock the great enclosure with its numerous white lined courts presented an animated appearance.

TAFT AND PARTY ARRIVE AT CEBU

By Associated Press.

Cebu, P. I., Aug. 22.—Secretary Taft and party arrived here at 9 o'clock this morning on the transport Logan. The Logan was met outside and escorted into the harbor by scores of launches and boats. The entire city is decorated. The programme of entertainment includes a parade, a race meeting and a visit to Magellan's monument. A banquet and a ball will conclude a picturesque and interesting day.

The Logan will sail for Tacloban at daybreak tomorrow. The Logan will take Secretary Taft's entire party and a company of marines to relieve the guard at Pekin to Hongkong, proceeding from there to Tientsin with those of the party who will visit Pekin. General Corbin will accompany the party to Pekin to arrange the transfer of the legation guard and the Logan will return to Manila.

Barrie's Juvenile Coworker.

While J. M. Barrie was composing his play, "Peter Pan," he went to a children's supper party. Among the guests was a little boy whose healthy appetite provoked from his mother the pleading threat, "You will be ill to-night." "No, mother; not till tomorrow," was the calm response of the contented creature of the moment. It caught and pleased the ear of Mr. Barrie, who put it into his play and promised to the juvenile joint author a half-penny royalty upon every performance.

Paid For the Advice.

Old Hunks (meeting a physician at the club)—Doc, what ought a man do when he has an all-overish feeling, as if he were going to have an attack of the grip? Crusty M. D.—He ought to consult a good physician about it. Old Hunks—Well, that advice ought to be worth a dollar, anyhow. Here it is. I'll go and hunt him up.—Chicago Tribune.

Vain Hope.

"Banks, can you remember just how much I owe you?"
"Thirteen dollars and twenty-five cents."
"That's the exact sum, eh? Thank you."
"Well—why did you want to know?"
"I thought perhaps you'd forgotten it; that's all."—Cleveland Leader.

Didn't Dope.

"Mr. Meskita says he never spoke a harsh word to his wife."
"Yes," answered Miss Cayenne, "but I'm not sure whether that is due to kindness or caution."—Washington Star.

No man was ever scolded out of his sins.—Cowper.

MINERAL WATER FROM SANTA ROSA COUNTY SPRINGS

The Journal has received from J. W. Keys, of Milligan, a bottle of his Carbon Springs Aluminous Water, which is put up near that place and which comes from a natural spring owned by Mr. Keys there. It is said to possess great medicinal qualities. Mr. Keys also sends The Journal several pieces of wood found at a depth of 25 or 30 feet below the surface of the earth which, when burned formed a disinfectant which drives flies and mosquitoes away and is presumed to kill disease germs.

AN ELECTION AT CHIPLEY

Special to The Journal.

Chipley, Aug. 22.—The white primary election held yesterday for the nomination of municipal officers resulted as follows:
For Mayor—Buell Cook.
For Clerk—R. C. Horne.
For Marshal—John Walter.
For Aldermen—E. N. Dekle and T. D. White.

There were three candidates for the office of city marshal, John Walter, F. M. Farrier and Ira Foster. Farrier received 27 votes and Walter 61. The total vote cast was 95.

A baseball game to-day between Chipley and Marianna resulted in the score: Chipley, 7; Marianna, 0. There will be another game to-morrow.

Three spectres that threaten baby's life, Cholera infantum, dysentery, diarrhoea. Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry never fails to conquer them.

The Sloping Floor.

The architects of a new building recently completed and which extended from one street through to another found a difference of thirty inches in the street levels of the two thoroughfares. Steps at either end of the building were regarded unfavorably, and so it was decided to build the first floor on an inclined plane, the slope was not noticeable, but the clerks discovered it in the most unthought of way. Several of them were comparing notes on the all absorbing question of socks one day, and one of them remarked: "I can't seem to get socks any more that wear well. Mine have holes in with one day's use."

"That's odd," said another salesman. "So do mine, and they never used to." Others echoed the experiences, and finally the solution was offered by the department superintendent, who said this was due to the man walking on an incline so much. "Your socks are all right," he said, "but they won't stand the wear incident to traveling up and down hill all day."—New York Mail.

Jefferson's Prayer and Pontifice.

Joseph Jefferson was suddenly taken ill once while visiting at the home of a friend. The wife of the friend whose hospitality he had enjoyed became alarmed over his condition and, being of a religious turn of mind, wished to instill in the mind of the actor her belief in the necessity for spiritual purification. A call to his room for the purpose of applying a poultice gave her the much desired opportunity.

"Mr. Jefferson," she said, nervously shifting the poultice from one hand to the other, "for your sake, for the sake of your friends, your family, I—I would like to pray for you."

The actor listened attentively, and his answer came slowly. "Yes, madam," he said, "you may—for my sake, for your sake, for everybody's sake—for heaven's sake put on that poultice!"—Boston Herald.

Bankers Like Mohammedans.

A swarthy man drew $500 out of the saving fund, and the cashier said on his departure:

"If all our depositors were like that gentleman our concern would soon be come rich. Murad Ali is an Indian, a native of Calcutta, and his religion forbids him to take interest on money. He has had a savings account with us for twelve years. His interest altogether has amounted to $700. But he has never accepted a cent of it. It has all flown back into our coffers again."

"All Mohammedans are like Murad Ali. They won't take interest on their money; hence India, I think, must be a grand country for the banking business, and how glad our bankers would be if Mohammedanism were to spread a little!"—Philadelphia Bulletin.

A Solemn Duty.
A solemn duty which we owe society, our children and ourselves is that nothing which can be done to assist nature at that time when our wives are to become mothers should be left undone. Of all the countless details to be observed at such a time, no single one is of more importance than the bodily welfare of the expectant mother; she must not experience undue suffering through any lack of effort on our part.

MOTHER'S FRIEND
should be the recourse of all real men and women at such times; it is easily obtainable, and it is a positive crime not to procure it. Its offices are to relax the muscles and tissues intimately associated in this greatest of the Creator's phenomena, and by simple external applications a result is obtained which at the appointed time permits the mother to undergo her greatest joy with fortitude, and bring into the world a child worthy of its parents. $1.00, all druggists.
